

SUGGESTED LANGUAGE FOR GENERAL BEQUEST PROVISIONS

A bequest provision in your will can be designated for the general educational purposes of the College and can be written as follows:

I give to Occidental College, a non-profit public benefit corporation located at Los Angeles, California, _____ (insert here: a dollar amount; percentage [%] of estate, or a description of the property you intend to bequeath) for its general educational purposes.*

\ Gifts can also be designated for current year scholarships, academic programs, library purposes, etc. These types of bequests are fully expendable by the College upon receipt.*

Occidental College's Legal Entity is: OCCIDENTAL COLLEGE,
A California non-profit public benefit corporation, located at 1600 Campus Road in Los Angeles, California